Dear Registrar

FINDING INTO DEATH WITHOUT INQUEST – Vicki Evelyn Webster

I refer to the findings and recommendations made by Coroner Bracken in relation to the death of Vicki Evelyn Webster, received by Moira Shire Council on 7 January 2019.

Please find detailed below response to the recommendations directed to Moira Shire Council.

Recommendation

- 3. The Council, with the support of VicRoads, widen approaches to and the road on the crest in Lake Rowan Road in the vicinity of Ms Webster's accident scene near Howells Road be widened as soon as possible.*

Response - Road widening works were completed by 15 February 2019 including centre and double line marking over the crest.

- 4 The Council, within three months of receiving this Finding post 'crest' warning signs and speed advisory signs as referred to in paragraph 30 above on the crest on Lake Rowan Road (and its continuation as Boweya-st James Road) between Big Hill Road and Bungeet Road.*

Response - 60km/hr advisory speed signs with accompanying crest warning signs were installed on 26 July 2018 on Lake Rowan road between Big Hill and Howells Road Lake Rowan. Benalla Rural City Council confirmed with Moira Shire Council that they had erected crest 60km/hr advisory speed signs with accompanying warning signs on Boweya/ St James road on 31 January 2019.

Yours sincerely
