

IN THE CORONERS COURT OF VICTORIA
AT MELBOURNE

Court Reference: COR 2019 005792

FINDING INTO DEATH WITHOUT INQUEST

Form 38 Rule 63(2)

Section 67 of the Coroners Act 2008

I, Phillip Byrne, Coroner, having investigated the death of BEVERLEY DAWN COPPIN

and without holding an inquest, I find that the identity of the deceased was BEVERLEY DAWN COPPIN born on 15 April 1944 and the death occurred on 10 September 2019

at 8 Beischer Street, Strathdale, Victoria 3550

from:

1a CARDIAC ARREST

1b LEWY BODY DEMENTIA

I make no further findings with respect to the circumstances in which the death occurred, under section 67(2) of the Coroners Act 2008 ('the Act'), because I did not hold an inquest and I find that:

- the deceased was not, immediately before their death, a person placed in custody or care; and
- there is no public interest to be served in making a finding regarding those circumstances.

I order that this finding be published on the Internet under section 73(1B) of the Act as I find that the deceased was, immediately before their death, a person placed in care and that their death was due to natural causes.

Signature:

PHILLIP BYRNE
CORONER

Date: 6 December 2019

NOTE: Under section 83 of the Coroners Act 2008 ('the Act'), a person with sufficient interest in an investigation may appeal to the Trial Division of the Supreme Court against the findings of a coroner in respect of a death after an investigation. An appeal must be made within 6 months after the day on which the determination is made, unless the Supreme Court grants leave to appeal out of time under section 86 of the Act.
